Paint a Brighter Tomorrow Give to the United Way Campaign

Listen to music and munch on donuts, meet a special visitor, toss your lucky ticket into the drawing, and — most of all — help paint a brighter tomorrow for those in need.

You can do all of the above in one short hour, from 10 A.M. to 11 A.M., during the PPPL United Way meeting for employees on Tuesday, December 10, in the MBG Auditorium.

“PPPL employees have always been generous and caring. We look forward to everyone’s continued support,” said Mary Ann Brown, who is PPPL’s 1996 United Way Campaign Chairperson.

This meeting will provide information about United Way programs, and will feature a special visitor, refreshments, entertainment, and door prizes [see list of prizes in this issue of HOTLINE.] The prizes have been donated by employees and local merchants.

Everyone who attends the meeting is eligible for the door prizes drawn. In addition, those who contribute to this year’s campaign will be entered in the Grand Prize Drawing for a $300 gift certificate for travel arrangements, compliments of PPPL. The Grand Prize will be drawn on Thursday, December 19, at 1 P.M. in the LOB Lobby.

Staff will receive pledge cards in the interoffice mail before the United Way meeting on December 10. These forms can be dropped off at the close of the meeting or mailed to 1996 United Way Chairperson Mary Ann Brown at C-Site, LOB, Room B-374. Donations may be given as a one-time contribution or through payroll deductions. Contributors may also earmark which charities they would like their donations to fund.

Five Critical Areas

Through your United Way, volunteers distribute resources to high-quality, effective human care programs for those most in need in greater Mercer County. The agency focuses resources on five critical areas: building self-sufficiency, strengthening families, promoting health and well-being, responding to crises, and building community. Programs range from substance abuse prevention, to infant, child, and adult day care, to hospice and home health care, to disaster and emergency assistance.

Remember on December 10 to attend the United Way meeting at 10 A.M. in the MBG Auditorium and the United Way Celebration Party at 4 P.M. in the Lobby. And, please, make a pledge to join others in painting a brighter tomorrow for their community! ●

Sloganeer Contino Wins United Way Contest

For Anthony Contino, it wasn't inspiration that counted as much as it was experience when he set about to create a winning slogan.

After all, at his previous job at Ebasco, he had won five slogan contests.

So this year he decided to try his hand at coming up with a slogan for PPPL's 1996 United Way Campaign. "I did it on a beat count, coming up with couplets," said Contino, who is the Manager of Training and Employment for PPPL's Office of Human Resources.

Out of five entries, Contino's slogan, "Touch a Life, Everyday, Share Your Heart, United Way," was chosen as the winner of the United Way Slogan Contest at PPPL. The winner was awarded a $20 gift certificate to the Forrestal at Princeton.

Congratulations, Anthony! ●

[See Contino's slogan on "Burma Shave" type signs along PPPL's exit lane. Posted along the entrance is a second slogan, "Go ahead, Make Someone's Day, Give to the United Way," which was submitted anonymously and selected as a co-winner.]
